SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Any- | body can Apply.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, 'ewerish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair dis-

Lydia Lopokova, the Russian Dancer, Cheers Skidoo Up by Giving Him Make-Up.

In theatrical circles, it to proverblai that once a person has worn greeze nostrile, haunting and e-ductive, its taste evermure upon his lips. Jimmy Statily, in charge of the monkey house at the Central Park Zoo, has adduced another proof of Darwin's theory by discovering that this same traft chtains in man's prehistoric ancestors.

Little Skideo, the Zoo's Java monkey, is an old trouper. He belonged to Lydia Lopokova, Russian dances, and for years he was either in her bedroom, her pocket, or her dressing room. With all the imitativeness of his tribe, he soon became an expert in the use of cosmetics, and his favorits diversion was to make himself up as one of those things that unfortunate alcoholics see perched on the picture moulding. He even went Tells Police That He Uses further than that-he began eating the stuff.

Little Skidoo recently was presented by his mistress to the Central Park Zoo. Yesterday, Jimmy Rellly had to send for the little toe dancer and implore her to come and cheer John Muriella, the nineteen-year- Skidoo up a bit. Though lively old youth who tried to extort $500 enough when he first arrived, the from Vincent Astor under threats of tiny monk began to lose interest in death, has admitted, according to the life about the third day, even food necessity for the drug drove him to monkey house to-day Reilly let The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

The prisoner appeared indifferent when he appeared before Magistrate when he appeared before Magistrate dancer's hand bag until he found a carmine lip stick. With a final pile of guilty to charges of violating the Sullivan Law and attempted it and the mystery of his loss of the storing faded, gray hair to its natural strength of the drug drove him to monkey house to-day Reilly left skildoo out and he leaped with squeaks of joy into his former own-day Reilly left squeaks of joy into his former own-day it, and the mystery of his loss of appetite was solved.

"He misses his little cosmetic cocktail," explained Miss Lopokova. "No wonder he wouldn't eat."
So now Jimmy Rellly has purchased a box of assorted make-up and Skidoo can close his eyes, lick his lips, and dream he is back of the footlights once again.
